CD 13 Team,

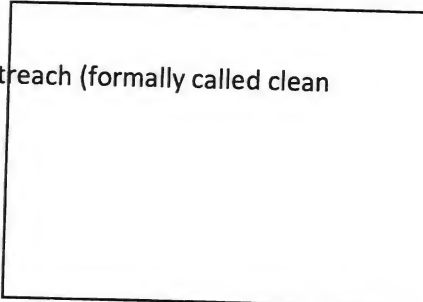

Greetings, this was a busy week in CD1 that included requests, maintenance, and outreach (formally called clean up) as well as general outreach and engagements.

CD13 requests were carried out but no actual contact was made.

Silver lake coffee shop on Glendale – white male with the orange sweater (we spoke with the BOA security guard)

Under the freeway @ Fletcher Dr. – belongings but no one present.

We will continue to try to make contact.

Monday- January 11, 2016

Picked up trash bags from CD13 O'Farrell's office. We made direct contact with a total of 12 people, 4 who were new contacts, encouraged clean up of their area, informed them of the maintenance and engagements effort for Wednesday, provided support, offered services, gave out hygiene kits, and passed out trash bags.

- Team met with 12 people.
- 4 were new contacts
- No CES's were completed, made appointments for engagement next week to provide support and offer services.

• No Veterans

Hoover Underpass

- James is a new contact who was willing to engage with team and agreed to meet with us again next week.
- Calvin is a new contact who was not as willing to engage but team will continue to outreach and engage him.
- Josh is a new contact who was engaged and expressed that he would like services but could not do any paperwork today. He agreed to meet with us next week.
- Valerie made an appointment for next week to go get her TB test.

Juanita

- Met with a total of 7 people
- One woman refused to give her name but said she would clean up her area, accepted trash bags, and our contact information, but said she didn't want services at this time. Team will continue to outreach and engage with her.
- Sunny was well engaged and agreed to meet with us again next week for possible services.
- Matt was very agitated, team backed off but left him trash bags.
- Psych and his encampment is overflowing with trash. Teamed coached him and encouraged him to keep his area clean. He agreed that he would put in the maximum effort to clean up the trash.

Wednesday January 13, 2016

Team participated in the maintenance and engagement, and was requested to come out a second time later in the afternoon to Juanita location. Coordinated with maintenance crew for additional clean up on Friday, due to the trucks being full.

- All others at this location participated in the maintenance clean up.
- Hoover- 6 people, 2 were new contacts
- John: no one was present however encampment was there
- Willowbrook: no one was present encampment was there
- Juanita: 7 ppl, no new contact (already included in your email below)
